Objective of the Activity:

- To create awareness among students about career opportunities in Defence Services
- To guide students regarding recruitment procedures and eligibility criteria
- To motivate youth towards serving the nation through defence services
- To provide proper direction for career planning in armed forces

Description of the Activity:

As per the instructions received from Dr. Babasaheb Ambedkar Marathwada University, the NSS Unit of Deogiri Institute of Technology and Management Studies ensured the participation of its volunteers in a Guidance Programme on Career Opportunities in Defence Services held on 12th March 2026 at the University Auditorium.

The programme was organized by the NSS Department in collaboration with the Student Development Department of the university. The session aimed to provide detailed guidance to students regarding various opportunities available in defence services.

The programme was addressed by distinguished resource persons including Brigadier A. G. Charkha and Major Pranav Shende, who shared valuable insights into defence careers, eligibility criteria, selection procedures, and the importance of discipline and dedication in serving the nation. Their guidance proved highly beneficial and motivating for the students.

NSS volunteers from DITMS actively participated in the programme. The students attended the session with keen interest and gained useful knowledge regarding career prospects in defence services. The participation was coordinated and accompanied by Mr. Pratik Jaiswal (NSS Programme Coordinator), who ensured smooth involvement of the volunteers.

Number of Participants:

- Boys: 07
- Girls: 10

Outcome of the Activity:

- Increased awareness among students about defence career opportunities
- Better understanding of recruitment processes and required preparation
- Motivation among students to consider careers in armed forces
- Enhanced sense of patriotism and national service
